

Regulations for Subsidizing Scientific Publications
for the Doctoral School Students at Poznan University of Medical Sciences in 2025

1. Director of Poznan University of Medical Sciences Doctoral School manages an annual budget that includes funding to support a scientific article publication by a Doctoral School Student.
2. This funding only applies to a publication, where the Doctoral Student is the first author.
3. The amount of funding awarded by the Doctoral School Director may be as follows:
  - a) 3.000,- PLN for an article published in a journal listed by the Ministry of Science and Higher Education, with scoring  $\geq 140$  points
  - b) 1.500,- PLN for an article published in a journal listed by the Ministry of Science and Higher Education, with scoring 70-139 points
4. A Doctoral Student may submit a written request for publication funding to the PUMS Doctoral School Office or by email: for Polish-speaking programme Doctoral Students at szkoladoktorska@ump.edu.pl, and for English-speaking programme Doctoral Students at doctoralschool@ump.edu.pl.
5. The application should include:
  - a) Doctoral Student's personal details, research unit name, student ID number and the year of study at the Doctoral School;
  - b) information about publication, including publication title and authorship order
  - c) journal details, including the Ministry of Science and Higher Education scoring, or IF;
  - d) Doctoral Student's and supervisor's signatures
6. To the application form the Doctoral Student must include confirmation of publication acceptance or an invoice copy.