Conditions and Procedure for Recruitment to the Doctoral School run by the Poznan University of Medical Sciences in the 2025/2026 academic year

Chapter I General provisions

- 1. This document contains the conditions and procedure for recruitment to the Doctoral School run in a full-time mode by the Poznan University of Medical Sciences.
- 2. The organisation of the Doctoral School are defined in the Regulations of the Doctoral School and the Curriculum at the Doctoral School at the PUMS.

- 1. Whenever the provisions of this document refer to:
  - 1) University it shall be understood as the Poznan University of Medical Sciences (abbreviation: PUMS);
  - 2) Act it shall be understood as the Act of July 20, 2018 Law on Higher Education and Science (i.e. Polish Journal of Laws of 2024, item 1571, as amended);
  - 3) Recruitment Committee it shall be understood as the Recruitment Committee of the Poznan University of Medical Sciences, appointed by the Doctoral School Director;
  - 4) Rector it shall be understood as the Rector of the Poznan University of Medical Sciences
  - 5) Doctoral School Office it shall be understood as the Doctoral School Office of the Poznan University of Medical Sciences.

- 1. The University is recruiting for the first year of the Doctoral School, run in the field of medical sciences and health sciences, in the following scientific disciplines: medical sciences, pharmaceutical sciences, health sciences for the 2025/2026 academic year, for both Polish and English language programme.
  - Candidate who applies simultaneously to both the Polish and English-speaking groups and successfully completes the entire recruitment process (including interviews) with a score that meets the admission requirements for the Doctoral School in both groups, shall submit a written statement indicating their preferred language group before the ranking list is announced.
- 2. A person who meets the following criteria may be admitted to the Doctoral School:
  - 1) who holds the professional title of Master, Master of Science, or equivalent, and meets the recruitment conditions set out below. The candidate must have a minimum average grade from exams at least above 3.20 during their higher education period.

- 2) in exceptional cases, justified by the highest quality of scientific achievements (§ 186, item 2 of the Act), a graduate of first-cycle studies or a student who has completed the third year of long-cycle master's studies, after successfully passing the recruitment process. The candidate referred to in this point is required to present previous scientific achievements, including scientific publications with an Impact Factor >8.0 (including at least one paper with first authorship), and to have a minimum average grade from exams during their previous higher education period at a level above 3.70.
- 3) who is not a doctoral student at another Doctoral School.
- 3. Any doctors and dentists applying for admission to the Doctoral School, who will conduct clinical research, shall be required to present to the Doctoral School Office a document confirming the acquisition of the medical licence for an indefinite period. Candidates qualified for admission, who are completing an internship at the time of recruitment are required to provide an indefinite medical license until November 30, 2025. Those who do not have the abovementioned document (who have not completed their internship) are required to provide the Doctoral School Office with:
  - 1) a signed statement that, as part of the postgraduate internship, the candidate has chosen a so-called personalized sub-internship, lasting 10 weeks, in a field of medicine directly related to the doctoral thesis being prepared (enter the scope of the field of medicine)
  - 2) a statement in which the candidate and the supervisor declare that research involving patients will be conducted with the supervisor's assistance. This document must be confirmed by the signature of both the candidate and the supervisor.
- 4. The recruitment process shall be admissible to students of the last year of second-cycle or long-cycle studies (other than medicine and medicine and dentistry) before defending their diploma thesis, as long as they provide a certificate of completion of all classes included in the study curriculum.
- 5. Candidates referred to in Section 4, qualified for admission to the Doctoral School, must deliver to the Doctoral School Office the diploma of completion of second-cycle or long-cycle studies by September 26, 2025. Failure to deliver the diploma will result in the removal from the list of admissions to the Doctoral School.
- 6. In the case of persons with disabilities, in order to ensure the possibility of participation in the interview for the Doctoral School conducted by the PUMS, the Recruitment Committee must be notified of the special needs related to participation in the interview. This notification should be delivered in writing. In addition, a photocopy of the document certifying the degree of disability should be attached, and if such document does not exist, medical documentation confirming the health condition. The foregoing documents should be submitted along with the remaining recruitment documentation.

Candidates applying for admission to the English-speaking program are required to indicate a candidate for a foreign supervisor (statement according to Appendix No.7).

1. Persons who are not Polish citizens, hereinafter: "foreigners", may be admitted to the Doctoral School.

- 2. Foreigners who do not have a certificate confirming their knowledge of the Polish language may take up training at the Doctoral School only in the English-speaking group.
- 3. Any candidates holding dual citizenship (Polish and foreign) shall be treated as Polish citizens and must enter the recruitment process on the terms applicable to Polish citizens.
- 4. The foreigners may undertake and pursue an education at the Doctoral School pursuant to Article 323 of the Act and on the terms laid down in these Conditions of Recruitment.
- 5. Based on a diploma certifying completion of studies abroad, any person whose diploma, in accordance with applicable regulations in this field, is recognised in Poland as equivalent to the Polish diploma of completing long-cycle studies or second-cycle studies may be admitted to the Doctoral School. In the case of candidates whose diploma cannot be recognised as equivalent to the relevant Polish diploma nor to professional title based on an international agreement specifying equivalence the international recognition of the diploma shall be required.
- 6. Documents concerning the completion of studies entitling to undertake studies at the Doctoral School, drawn up in a foreign language, must be submitted by the candidate together with their translation into Polish, made by a sworn translator.

- 1. The Rector establishes, in the form of an order, the limit of admissions to the Doctoral School, separate for the Polish-speaking and English-speaking groups.
- 2. The order pertaining to the admission limit shall be announced before the interview conducted under the recruitment process.
- 3. In exceptionally justified cases, the Rector may change the number of admission places.
- 4. A ranking list shall be prepared based on the final scores achieved by all candidates participating in the recruitment process. The Candidates shall be ranked on the list based on their scores, from highest to lowest following the number of admission places established by the Rector.
- 5. In order to implement a research project, under which funds have been secured for the doctoral scholarship referred to in the Act, an additional recruitment process shall be carried out by the Doctoral School Director. Only the persons recruited earlier on to the project may participate in the recruitment process to the Doctoral School as part of such enrolment. The recruitment process under the additional enrolment shall take place on two dates: in the winter term and in the summer term, whereas the pursuit of the curriculum (compulsory classes, optional classes, doctoral seminars, apprenticeships and compulsory courses) by doctoral students admitted under the summer recruitment process shall start from October of the next academic year, while in the transitional period, the Doctoral School Director shall establish the individual organisation of education (IOK). The recruitment process shall be carried out in accordance with the provisions of these Conditions.
- 6. Research projects managers submit written information to the Vice-Rector for Science regarding the planned involvement in the project of the scholarship holder's doctoral student, the candidate's profile, the expected time of participation in the project, as well as the amount of the doctoral scholarship provided for in the project and the time of its payment by the approved conditions of project implementation. The prepared cost estimate for the payment of the doctoral scholarship should secure the possibility of its payment throughout the period of Doctoral Student education at the Doctoral School required by the law. In order to arrange additional recruitment to the PUMS Doctoral School, the head of the research project submits the opinion of the Vice-Rector for Science to the Director of the Doctoral School at least 4-6 weeks before the planned date of recruitment to the Doctoral School. The dates of additional recruitment for candidates selected in the grant competition are set by the Director of the Doctoral School, acting under the authority of the Rector.

- 7. The Rector shall set the admission limit to the Doctoral School in the form of an order for the candidates listed in Section 5.
- 8. English language proficiency at a level of at least B2 or IELTS 5-6, confirmed with an appropriate English language proficiency certificate, assessed by the Recruitment Committee, gives the maximum number of points in English language proficiency, in accordance with Appendix 1. The current list of certificates is available on the website of the Doctoral School. Without a certificate or failure to timely attach the certificate to the application file, the candidate must undergo an English language interview before the Recruitment Committee.
- 9. As far as the case referred to in Section 4 is concerned, when two or more candidates have scored an equal number of points entitling to admission to the Doctoral School, the final admission shall be determined by the greater number of points scored in the evaluation of scientific activity. Should any candidate qualified for the admission have resigned from undertaking education at the Doctoral School, the candidates who have obtained a positive score in the recruitment process but have not qualified for the admission to the Doctoral School due to the lack of admission places shall be admitted to that vacated places, according to the ranking list, not later than before the beginning of the education cycle.
- 10. The results of the recruitment process shall be made public.

- 1. The thesis supervisor of a Doctoral Student may be a senior academic staff member (PUMS' employee), scientifically active and with currently published scientific achievements, as well as with a positive periodic appraisal of an academic teacher for the last 5 years.
- 2. A Doctoral Student pursuing education in an English-speaking group may be supervised by two supervisors, including an employee of PUMS and an employee of a foreign university or research institution.
- 3. A foreign thesis supervisor may be a person without the post-doctoral degree or the professor title, who is an employee of a foreign university or scientific institution, provided the College Council, competent to conduct the procedure for awarding the doctoral degree considers, that this person has significant achievements in the field of scientific issues covered by the doctoral dissertation.
- 4. The thesis supervisor may supervise at most three Doctoral Students of the Doctoral School, with the exception of doctoral students admitted as part of the implementation of research projects financed with external funds, provided that this doctoral student is ensured the capacity to complete internships in the form of delivering teaching classes. Should the - supervision over the greater number of doctoral students be planned, it shall be subject the consent of the Doctoral School Director in consultation with the Rector.

- 5. The thesis supervisor should be working for at least another four years at the University (due to age restrictions), following the moment of admitting the doctoral student.
- 6. The person referred to in Article 190 (6) of the Act must not be the thesis supervisor.
- 7. For candidates who achieve the qualifying score for admission in the recruitment process, the formal appointment of a supervisor occurs within three months from starting their education in the Doctoral School. During the recruitment process, a candidate for a dissertation supervisor is presented.
